

SOUTHERN SCREAMS, LLC

Team Referral Program

Spread the scream. Earn while you do it.

SHARE YOUR LINK · EARN 5% · GET PAID

BooBucks is the Southern Screams team referral program. You help sell tickets by sharing your own personal link, and you earn a cash bonus on every eligible ticket sold through it. It is open to every team member at every Southern Screams event where the program is offered.

How it works

Get your link

Leadership sends you a personal ticket link with your unique 5-digit code built in.

Share it

Post it, text it, and send it to friends, family, and followers. Every eligible ticket bought through it is tracked to you.

Get paid

You earn 5% of each eligible sale, added as a bonus to your final paycheck for the event.

YOUR LINK LOOKS LIKE THIS

app.gopassage.com/events/[event]?referral=[your 5-digit code]

Use the exact link leadership sends you. The event part of the link changes with each event, so you get a fresh link each time. Your code stays the same.

What you earn

Rate	5% of the ticket sale value of every eligible ticket purchased through your personal link.
Sale value	The ticket price paid. Taxes, processing fees, and refunded tickets are not included.
No cap	There is no limit on how much you can earn. The more you share, the more you can make.

How it is paid	Added as a bonus to your final paycheck for the event, through regular payroll. BooBucks are taxable wages, and taxes are withheld like any other pay.
-----------------------	--

Example

A friend buys 4 general admission tickets through your link with no discount code	4 × $30.00 = $120.00
Your aunt buys 2 tickets through your link with no discount code	2 × $30.00 = $60.00
Someone uses your link and a promo code	Not eligible
Eligible sales	$180.00
Your BooBucks (5%)	$9.00

Example prices only. Actual ticket prices vary by event, night, and ticket type.

What counts and what doesn't

COUNTS

Eligible for BooBucks.

- Tickets bought through your personal link
- Full-price tickets with no other discount or promo code
- Purchases that are not refunded or charged back
- Sales made after you receive your link

DOESN'T COUNT

Not eligible for BooBucks.

- Tickets bought with any discount code, promo, or group rate (no double dips)
- Sales through any other link, or at the box office
- "They said they'd use my name": verbal referrals or shares without your link
- Refunded, cancelled, or charged-back tickets

The rules

Your link only	Only tickets purchased through your personalized link are credited. We cannot add sales after the fact, so make sure buyers use your link.
No double dips	If a buyer uses a discount or promo code, the ticket is not eligible, even if they used your link. Tell buyers if you want the credit.
Non-transferable	BooBucks belong to the team member linked to the code. They cannot be transferred, split, or shared with anyone else.
One payout	No rolling or early payouts. Your total is tallied once, after the event ends, and paid with your final paycheck for that event.
Finish in good standing	BooBucks are paid only to team members who complete their engagement (through the end date on their Hire Sheet) in good standing. If you resign early, are separated early, or have unresolved performance or attendance issues, BooBucks for that event are forfeited.

Our records decide

Totals are based on Southern Screams' ticketing records. If you think a sale is missing, tell leadership before the end of the event so we can look into it.

Share it the right way

- Be yourself. Share it as a team member: "I work here, come see me!" works better than anything.
- Do not pose as the company. No fake official accounts, paid ads, or posts that look like they come from Southern Screams.
- Keep the secrets. No behind-the-scenes photos, scare reveals, or anything covered by the Confidentiality Agreement.
- No spam. Do not post your link on coupon or deal sites, or spam comment sections and strangers' pages.
- Follow the Social Media policy in the Company Handbook (Section 17) and never share another team member's personal information.

Tips to earn more

- Post early and often. Share when tickets first go on sale, during flash sales, and in the last week, when people make plans.
- Pin it. Put your link in your bio, link-in-bio page, and stories so it is always one tap away.
- Ask directly. A personal text to a group chat or a friend planning a night out outperforms a general post.
- Remind buyers not to use a discount code if they want to support you.

QuestionsMy code or link

Ask leadership. You can ask for your link to be re-sent at any time.

Checking my total

Ask leadership for your running total; we're happy to check during the event.

A sale is missing

Tell leadership before the event ends, with the buyer's name and purchase date if you have them.

PROGRAM TERMS

BooBucks is a voluntary incentive, separate from your hourly pay. Southern Screams may modify, suspend, or end the program at any time; any change applies going forward and does not reduce BooBucks already earned on eligible sales before the change, except as described under "Finish in good standing." Southern Screams may also make a team member ineligible based on job performance, attendance, professional conduct, or violations of company policy, including misuse of a referral link. Nothing in this program changes at-will employment.
